

KANS CAPITAL IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE ITS INCORPORATION TO THE PRESTIGIOUS MEXICAN ASSOCIATION OF PRIVATE EQUITY AND VENTURE CAPITAL FUNDS (AMEXCAP)

CDMX, June 2023

Kans Capital, a private equity fund in Mexico, is pleased to announce its incorporation to AMEXCAP (the Mexican Association of Private Equity and Venture Capital). This alliance marks an important milestone for Kans Capital and strengthens the private equity ecosystem in Mexico.

Founded in 2003, AMEXCAP is the leading association in Mexico that promotes the growth and development of the private equity industry in Mexico. By joining this prestigious association, Kans Capital joins a select group of 128 Capital Firms and 60 Specialized Advisory Firms, and will have the opportunity to collaborate with other key players to foster growth and innovation in the private equity industry in Mexico.

The integration of Kans Capital into AMEXCAP undoubtedly provides great benefits for both parties. On one hand, Kans Capital will have access to a broad and diverse network of contacts, as well as resources and specialized knowledge provided by AMEXCAP. Additionally, the association with AMEXCAP reinforces Kans Capital's commitment to the highest ethical standards and best practices in the private equity industry.

Adriana Sandoval, Managing Partner of Kans Capital, commented, "We are excited to join this prestigious association and be part of this community of professionals committed to the sustainable growth of the industry. We firmly believe in the crucial role this association plays and how it can contribute to our own development as a company. Undoubtedly, this incorporation will allow us to collaborate with leading firms and share our innovative ideas, thus contributing actively to the growth and success of the industry by creating a stronger and more prosperous ecosystem for private equity investment in Mexico. Together, we will take firm steps towards a future of opportunities and growth for players in the sector."

Kans Capital will continue to focus on its mission of investing in and partnering with high-growth companies, providing innovative and strategic solutions to its investors and partners. Its inclusion in AMEXCAP is a significant step towards positioning itself as a leading company in the Mexican private equity market.
