

Kans Capital Announces Strategic Changes in its Executive Team to Drive Growth

Mexico City, September 26, 2024.- Kans Capital, a Mexican private equity firm, announces the appointment of José Antonio Chávez as Operating & Legal Co-Managing Partner. This new position reaffirms the company's commitment to its investors by driving both growth and innovation in the financial sector.

With over 25 years of experience, José Antonio is a renowned lawyer who advises national and international companies on financial transactions. He founded Chávez Vargas Abogados in 2010 and has been recognized by publications such as Chambers and Partners, LexLatin, and Legal 500 as one of the country's most influential lawyers in banking, finance, capital markets, and infrastructure.

"I am both excited and grateful for the opportunity Kans Capital has given me by inviting me to join the executive team as a partner. In this new role, I hope to strengthen the firm and its projection nationally and internationally while continuing to achieve key milestones in our growth strategy," said José Antonio Chávez, Operating & Legal Co-Managing Partner of Kans Capital.

Additionally, Adriana Sandoval, founder of the fund in 2022, will take on the role of Strategic & Investments Founding Managing Partner. With over 20 years of experience in investment banking, finance, and operations management, Adriana has excelled in financial evaluation, strategic and risk analysis through M&A transactions, asset sales and acquisitions, and public and private debt and capital raisings. Her experience includes transactions in infrastructure, public-private partnerships, the development of an electronic commodities exchange, mining projects, and more.

"We are very proud to welcome a professional of José Antonio's caliber to Kans Capital. His expertise comes at a pivotal time of continued growth, enabling us to strengthen our strategic partnerships further and maximize value for both our current and future investors," commented Adriana Sandoval, Strategic & Investments Founding Managing Partner of Kans Capital.

With these changes, Kans Capital aims to optimize its operations in the short and medium term, consolidating its position as one of the leading private equity funds for mid-sized companies focused on sustainable growth while also distinguishing itself through its private debt investments. Recently, the firm invested $30 million in Grupo Carolo, a prominent restaurant chain in Mexico, to support its expansion across both Mexico and the United States.
